External Course Offerings for Pathway Students – Year 10, 11 and 12 2024

To support the diverse needs of students to develop the skills and qualifications they need for a successful future, Springfield Central State High complements current school offerings with a range of certificate and diploma courses.

Please note:

- ✓ Courses are completed 1 day a week (until finished) and students are responsible to catch up on any missed school work
- ✓ Independent Study Lines (ISL) will be arranged to support learning
- ✓ Certificate III and above courses gain access to some University courses
- ✓ Parents / Guardians are responsible for the cost of the course and transport to and from the venue
- ✓ VETis funding is able to be used for 1 Certificate I or Certificate II course only during school
- ✓ Parents may need to attend parent information sessions run by TAFE or other training organisations if application is approved
- ✓ All enrolments are subject to school approval as the main learning provider
- ✓ Course information and costs are determined by external course providers and are subject to change
